The proclamation, “The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us” assures us that God has entered into human history through the incarnation of the Son. The season of Advent, a season of waiting, is designed to cultivate our awareness of God’s actions—past, present, and future. (Reprinted from The Worship Sourcebook)

Choral Anthem: “Come, Emmanuel” N. Price, D. Besig

Advent Prayer

In the psalms of David, in the words of the prophets, in the dream of Joseph, your promise is spoken, eternal God, and takes flesh at last in the womb of the virgin.

May Emmanuel find welcome in our hearts,
take flesh in our lives, and be for all people
the welcome advent of redemption and grace.

We ask this through him whose coming is certain, whose Day draws near; your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen.

Statement of Assurance

Offertory Prayer and Offering of our Gifts

Each week at Covenant we receive a monetary offering to support the mission and ministry of the church. This morning’s offering will support the Christian Education Fund which provides funds for the education of our children at one of our local Christian schools to help keep tuition down to a level that is affordable for most of our families.

We Share Our Joys & Concerns and Pray for Each Other

Table

We invite all who believe in Jesus as their Lord and Savior to come to the table to be fed and nourished. We believe that this is a family meal. Children who do not yet take communion may join their parents for a spoken blessing. If your children have shown an interest in taking communion, please contact Pastor Joel or your elder. This morning we will come forward to receive the elements. If you are in need of gluten-free bread, please indicate that to the servers.

Introduction

This is a season of many mysteries.

We gather even as we wrestle with their meaning.

We bring the mysteries of our own lives with us,
seeking truths beyond what we can see and know.

As we reflect on God revealed in Christ,

so too do we reflect on Christ present at this meal.

Christ is the Bread through which we have life and the Vine to which we are connected.

May this time of sharing bread and cup

bring us to a new awareness of God’s grace embodied in Christ.
