

Psalm 90:1-2

Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

† Ordinary time refers to the Sundays between Pentecost and Advent, a season in the liturgical year of growth in the life of the church.

Welcome

Call to Worship

This is the day that the Lord has made.

Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Lord, you have been our dwelling place,

You have been our rock for all generations.

We will bless the Lord at all times.

His praise will always be on our lips.

This is the day that the Lord has made.

Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

*Song: "Rescuer"

Chorus

He's our rescuer, he's our rescuer. We are free from sin forevermore.

Oh, how sweet the sound! Oh, how grace abounds!

We will praise the Lord, our rescuer

1. There is good news for the captive, good news for the shamed.

There is good news for the one who walked away.

There is good news for the doubter, the one religion failed, for the good Lord has come to seek and save. (to chorus)

2. He is beauty for the blind man, riches for the poor.

He is friendship for the one the world ignores.

He is pasture for the weary, rest for those who strive.

Oh, the good Lord is the way, the truth, the life.

Yes, the good Lord is the way, the truth, the life. (to chorus)

Bridge

So come and be chainless. Come and be fearless.

Come to the foot of Calvary.

There is redemption for every affliction here at the foot of Calvary.
