

The Invitation

We invite all who believe in Jesus as their Lord and Savior to come to the table to be fed and nourished. We believe that this is a family meal and children are welcome at the table. This morning the elements will be passed through the rows. Please hold them until all have been served and we will eat and drink together. If you are in need of gluten-free bread, please indicate that to the servers.

Communion Songs: "There Is a Redeemer"

The Thanksgiving: Psalm 103:1-4 p.939

Praise the Lord, O my soul;
all my inmost being, praise his holy name.
Praise the Lord, O my soul
and forget not all his benefits—who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases, who redeems your life from the pit
and crowns you with love and compassion.

We Are Sent as Disciples

*Benediction

*Closing Song: "I Know that My Redeemer Lives"

LUYH 193:1,2,4,7

Postlude: "A Shout Rings Out, A Joyful Voice"

J. Zwart

Breakfast on the Beach*John 21:12-14

Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

God Provides a Table in the Wilderness

We Gather at the Table

The pattern of faith and true life is clear enough: God gives,
and we receive.

God gives far more abundantly than we can ask or imagine,
and we receive.

God gives life and breath to the world,
gives miracles of deliverance and newness,
and we receive.

God gives God's very self in Jesus, the lamb of God,
and we receive.

People of God, this is the table where God intends for us to be well fed.
This is the way Christ comes to renew his people.

Let us we proclaim our faith as signed and sealed in this sacrament:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

Dying he destroyed our death.

Rising he restored our life.

Lord Jesus, come in glory.

The Institution: 1 Corinthians 11

Prayer of Consecration, concluding with the Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come;

thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

and forgive us our debts,

as we forgive our debtors.

Lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
